

£1.35 million funding boost to drive growth of visitor economy in North East and West Midlands

The visitor economy in the North East and the West Midlands is receiving a £1.35 million funding boost over the next year to help the regions attract even more tourists and investment to the UK.