

£1 billion government funding boost for bus services across England to help end postcode lottery

Funding will keep fares down, protect local routes and deliver more reliable services.