

£1 million for innovation to enhance UK space capabilities

Five innovative organisations have won a share of £1 million to develop technologies that enhance the UK's ability to safely operate in space.