

£10 million flood repair works planned for the Lower River Aire

A repair package of works up to £10 million has been proposed for the Lower River Aire washlands that were affected by devastating floods.