

£100 million support delivered to back next generation of small business owners

The next generation of business leaders have received over £100 million worth of support from the Government backed Start Up Loan Scheme