

100 more military personnel to support Scotland's vaccine rollout

An additional 100 Armed Forces personnel have been made available to accelerate the vaccine rollout in Scotland amid a wave of Omicron infections.