

1,000 UK troops show commitment to eastern Europe in NATO exercise

More than 1,000 British troops have begun one of the largest exercises this year in the Balkans, showing the UK's commitment to the region's security.