

£101 million investment to boost cycling and walking nationwide

Newly funded projects will provide even more people, especially in rural and deprived areas, the choice to travel by walking, wheeling or cycling.