

£143 million for better bus journeys as almost a thousand zero emission buses to hit the road

Rural areas in England will be prioritised to receive new buses, which will improve the passenger experience.