

£15 million boost for cultural venues to level up access to the arts across England

Fourth round of the Cultural Development Fund launched for cultural organisations across England to level up access to the arts, heritage and culture