15,000 trees planted in Keighley to reduce flood risk and mitigate climate change

15,000 trees have been planted in Keighley to reduce flood risk and mitigate climate change as part of a Natural Flood Management Programme which aims to reduce flood risk in the River Aire catchment.