The Central Government promulgated the Plan for Comprehensive Deepening Reform and Opening Up of the Qianhai Shenzhen-Hong Kong Modern Service Industry Cooperation Zone last year to advance the comprehensive deepening of the reform and opening up of the Qianhai Shenzhen-Hong Kong Modern Service Industry Cooperation Zone. As such, the theme of this year's seminar was "Promoting the Development of Qianhai Shenzhen-Hong Kong Modern Service Industry and the Greater Bay Area through IP Trading", with an aim of keeping enterprises abreast of the development of the innovation and technology ecosystem in Qianhai and the relevant IP court cases, and encouraging them to make use of the professional services provided by Hong Kong in formulating effective IP strategies, so as to provide impetus for enterprises to expand their businesses nationwide and worldwide through IP trading by seizing the opportunities arising from the development of the Guangdong-Hong Kong-Macao Greater Bay Area and the Cooperation Zone.

At the seminar, speakers made presentations and led discussions on various topics including the building of Qianhai into a world-class IP protection region, notable IP court cases related to Hong Kong, points to note for enterprises in handling IP disputes, the latest developments of IP and the original grant patent system in Hong Kong, and professional IP arbitration and mediation services provided by Hong Kong.
