

2024 Paris Olympic Games Mainland Olympians delegation continues to meet with different sectors (with photos)

After attending the Mainland Olympians Gala Show to meet with the public yesterday (August 30), members of the 2024 Paris Olympic Games Mainland Olympians delegation gave two sports demonstrations and had exchanges with local athletes this morning (August 31).

The delegation attended a number of events in the past few days, including a visit to the Hong Kong Sports Institute where they had dialogues and skill exchanges with Hong Kong elite athletes, and shared their stories of struggles and success. The delegation also met and interacted with primary and secondary school students, representatives of disciplined services and members of the general public. The delegation was also arranged to visit the Peak and Victoria Harbour.

The delegation left Hong Kong after attending a farewell luncheon held by the Sports Federation & Olympic Committee of Hong Kong, China today.
