

£250k fund to boost regional food and drink sector

A new initiative to help drive, celebrate and promote locally sourced and produced food and drink has been created, with a total of £250,000 available for applicants.