

312,000 rural homes and businesses to get access to faster broadband in overhaul of old infrastructure

Hundreds of thousands of rural homes and businesses will receive major internet speed upgrades, as the UK Government fixes the digital divide and powers up all regions of Britain.