

34th Universal Periodic Review: UK statement on Islamic Republic of Iran

Mr President,

The United Kingdom appreciates Iran's engagement with the UPR.

We remain concerned by discrimination against persons belonging to minority religious groups, particularly the Baha'i and Christians.

We remain deeply concerned by Iran's failure to uphold international legal obligations, and its arbitrary detention of citizens and dual nationals arrested on unclear charges, denied due process and subject to mistreatment.

We recommend that Iran:

1. Immediately demonstrates that all detainees in prison are neither tortured nor subject to cruel or inhumane treatment or punishment.
2. Promptly allows an impartial trial process that weighs evidence and ensures defendants, and lawyers of their choosing, can have timely access to the charges and evidence.

3. Investigates sexual exploitation of children aged under 18, including through forced, early and temporary marriage, and develop a national plan to protect at risk children.

Thank you.
