£500 million to develop the adult social care workforce

The Health and Social Care Levy will include dedicated funding for the social care workforce — to train and retain talent as well as attracting new staff.