

500 Trucks rapidly procured for British Army operations

500 support trucks will be delivered to the British Army, to support operational activity, following a rapid procurement process of just 7 months.