

£600,000 to ignite regional space growth

The UK Space Agency is inviting local development bodies to bid for funding of up to £100,000 to help put space at the heart of local economies