

74 Chinese in telecom frauds extradited from Cambodia

A total of 74 Chinese nationals arrested for telecom fraud were sent back to China from Cambodia on Thursday under the escort of Chinese police.

A total of 74 Chinese nationals arrested for telecom fraud were sent back to China from Cambodia on Thursday under the escort of Chinese police. [Photo/zibo.dzwww.com]

The suspects were involved in more than 60 major transnational telecom frauds involving over 7 million yuan (US$1.1 million).

They were captured in Phnom Penh, Pailin and Sihanoukville.

A big amount of bank cards, computers and mobile phones were also seized during the raids.