

93 Pakistanis heading to UK on fully funded Chevening and Commonwealth scholarships

Pakistani students from every corner of the country have been given British High Commissioner Jane Marriott's top tips for living in the UK, ahead of a year studying at British universities.