

A Christmas stocking gives North East fish numbers a boost

The Environment Agency has released thousands of fish bred at its national fish farm into North East rivers and stillwaters