

A Christmas stocking gives West Country fish numbers a boost

Thousands of fish have found new homes just in time for Christmas thanks to the Environment Agency's annual restocking programme.