

A Legacy of Art & Design in Dundee – The William S. Phillips’ Fund Bursaries

From the Curator of Museum Services at the University of Dundee :

A Legacy of Art & Design in Dundee

An exhibition celebrating 15 years of funding of artistic excellence at Duncan of Jordanstone College of Art & Design.

In the Lamb Gallery, Tower Building, University of Dundee, “A Legacy of Art & Design in Dundee” is running until 23rd June.

Since 2003, the William S. Phillips’ Fund has supported over 40 postgraduates with bursaries to study at Duncan of Jordanstone College of Art & Design.

This major exhibition commemorates 15 years of this funding with a wide-ranging collection of work by the recipients of the awards as well as some examples of work by William Phillips’ father, landscape painter Charles Gustav Louis Phillips.

The exhibition celebrates the extraordinary vibrancy of the art and design talent that has emerged from Dundee and its continuing influence through the wide-ranging work of these contemporary artists and designers.

The exhibition is open Monday to Friday 9.30am-7pm and Saturday 1pm-5pm.

It has been supported by the William S. Phillips’ Fund and includes works on loan from Dundee Heritage Trust.
