

A man and a woman holding charged with attempted murder

Police today (November 8) laid a holding charge against a 38-year-old man and his 33-year-old wife jointly with one count of attempted murder.

The man and the woman were arrested on November 6 in suspected connection with an attempted murder and attempted suicide case in Cheung Sha Wan on November 5, in which two boys aged six and two were sent to hospital in conscious state.

The case will be mentioned at West Kowloon Magistrates' Courts today.
