

Aberdeen Marine Office resumes service

The Marine Department announced today (February 28) that thorough cleaning and disinfection of the Aberdeen Marine Office (AMO) has been completed after notification on February 25 that a staff member of the Office was suspected of contracting COVID-19. The AMO will resume service today.