About 6.5 million people have their eligibility verified to receive second instalment vouchers

 A Government spokesman said today (July 13) that under the 2023 Consumption Voucher Scheme (CVS)'s second instalment, about 6.5 million people, including around 220 000 new eligible registrants, have their eligibility verified to receive the consumption vouchers. The vouchers will be disbursed starting from July 16 (Sunday).

Eligible Hong Kong permanent residents, new arrivals and people who come to live in Hong Kong through different admission schemes and to study in Hong Kong will be disbursed with vouchers of the following values:

	Hong Kong permanent residents or new arrivals	People who come to live in Hong Kong through different admission schemes and to study in Hong Kong
Existing eligible registrants (they have already been disbursed with first instalment vouchers on April 16)		$1,000 (to be disbursed on July 16)
New eligible registrants	$3,000 (to be disbursed on July 16) $2,000 (to be disbursed on October 16)	$1,500 (to be disbursed on July 16) $1,000 (to be disbursed on October 16)

 \tilde{a} € \tilde{a} € \tilde{e} The arrangement and timetable for disbursement of second instalment vouchers through different stored value facilities are set out in Annexes I and II.

 \tilde{a} € \tilde{a} € \tilde{e} For eligible existing registrants who receive the first and second instalment vouchers through Octopus, if their cumulative "eligible spending" has reached $3,000 by June 30, they will be disbursed with the second instalment, i.e. $2,000 vouchers (Note), on July 16. If the cumulative spending requirement is met afterwards, the relevant vouchers will be disbursed on the 16th of the following month, and the cumulative spending requirement has to be met by October 31 at the latest.

The Government has notified all the registrants who have their eligibility verified of their eligibility checking result by SMS message through a designated telephone number (6059 1120). Members of the public may also enquire about their eligibility checking results and the amount of vouchers to be disbursed through the interactive voice response system of the hotline 18 5000. For registrants who have been notified that they do not meet the eligibility criteria of the Scheme and do not agree to the result, they may apply for review in writing within 14 days after receiving the relevant SMS message. For details, please visit the Scheme website (www.consumptionvoucher.gov.hk/en/fags.html#G1).

 $\tilde{a} \in \tilde{a} \in \tilde{T}$ he spokesman said that the CVS Secretariat has earlier selected a small portion of registrants for eligibility checking, and has contacted the selected registrants through SMS messages and telephone calls, inviting them to provide the relevant documentary proof. If the vouchers are not disbursed on July 16 owing to progress of submission of documents, the Secretariat or its contractor will complete the eligibility check as soon as possible after receiving the documents submitted by these people, and will arrange to issue vouchers to those who have their eligibility verified.

 \tilde{a} € \tilde{a} € \tilde{e} The spokesman again reminded the public to pay particular attention to the following if they receive calls or SMS messages on the CVS:

- the calls will not be recorded messages;
- the SMS messages will not provide any hyperlinks;
- no personal information will be obtained from the registrants directly; and

• the Government or its contractors will only use the following designated telephone numbers to call or send SMS messages:
