

Actuaries highlight the increasing risk of Planetary Insolvency

A newly published report explores a framework for global climate risk management, includes contributions from an actuary at the Government Actuary's Department.