

AFCD appeals to public to avoid visiting country parks during passage of typhoon

TV/radio announcers please broadcast the following as soon as possible:

As a typhoon is approaching Hong Kong, for safety's sake, the Agriculture, Fisheries and Conservation Department urges members of the public to avoid visiting country parks. Those who are in country parks at the moment, depending on the actual circumstances, should immediately leave or take shelter at a safe place.