

Agreement signed to speed up responses to incidents on roads

Highways England and emergency services across the West Midlands have signed up to a new agreement which will see incidents on roads dealt with more swiftly.