

Ambassador Marshall updates UK nationals in Luxembourg on Brexit

Ambassador John Marshall answering questions

Addressing a full auditorium Ambassador Marshall delivered a presentation, focussing on a 'no deal' Brexit. With an emphasis on preparation he explained the steps necessary to ensure those attending were getting ready for Brexit.

The presentation, which is available on the British Embassy Facebook page, discusses residency, the right to work, healthcare, driving licences, education and pets.

The session ended with an extensive Q & A session which gave guests the opportunity to express their concerns and seek advice on their individual circumstances.

Published 24 October 2019