

AMS maintains essential public service

With effect from tomorrow (February 4) until further notice, the Auxiliary Medical Service (AMS) will only maintain essential public service including delivery of anti-epidemic service, operation of methadone clinics and provision of non-emergency ambulance service. The first aid service for all cycle tracks and country parks on weekends and public holidays will be suspended. In case where emergency assistance is required, please dial 999.