

Andy honoured with special award

The parents of a popular member of Scotland's Rural College staff who died suddenly last summer attended last week's graduation ceremony to accept a special award posthumously on their son's behalf.