

Announcement by Judiciary on arrangements during Tropical Cyclone Warning

The following is issued on behalf of the Judiciary:

The Judiciary has announced that as the Tropical Cyclone Warning Signal No.8 was still in force at 6am, all hearings of the courts and tribunals will be adjourned this morning (November 14).

Hearings will remain adjourned this afternoon if the Tropical Cyclone Warning Signal No. 8 is still in force at or after 11am.

Court/tribunal registries and offices are closed until further notice. Court users may continue to use the integrated Court Case Management System (iCMS) for electronic services provided by the registries of the District Court, Magistrates' Courts and Small Claims Tribunal as usual. Any documents filed via the iCMS during the registries' closure period will be deemed to have been received upon their reopening.
