

Answering letters to Santa

The Christmas season is upon us once more, which means that post offices are brimming with letters to Santa Claus from children and grown-ups too. For the past 40 years, Hongkong Post has made sure each letter gets a personalised response.

News.gov.hk visited Santa's dedicated team of helpers at Hongkong Post who shared some of the heartwarming festive letters they receive.

The story is available at www.news.gov.hk/eng/feature today (December 24) in text and video format.
