

Appeal for information on abandoned boy (with photo)

Police are anxious to locate the next-of-kin of a boy who was found abandoned in Yau Ma Tei yesterday (July 21).

About 12.40pm yesterday, Police received a report that a boy was found wandering at the Accident and Emergency Department of Kwong Wah Hospital.

The boy, named Chen Healon, is twelve years old. He is 1.45 metres tall, 35 kilograms in weight and of thin build. He has a sharp face with yellow complexion and short black hair. He wore a pair of black glasses, a dark blue short-sleeved T-shirt, khaki shorts and black sandals.

The boy sustains no apparent injuries.

Investigation by the officers of Yau Tsim District is underway.

Police urge his relatives or anyone who has information to offer, to contact any police stations or the officers of Yau Tsim District on 36619515 or email to ymtdiv-rr@police.gov.hk.

