

Appeal for information on missing man in Mong Kok (with photo)

Police today (August 8) appealed to the public for information on a man who went missing in Mong Kok.

Kwan Tsan-sang, aged 82, went missing after he was last seen at the junction of Nathan Road and Shantung Street last night (August 7). His family made a report to Police on the same day.

He is about 1.65 metres tall, 62 kilograms in weight and of thin build. He has a long face with yellow complexion and short grey and white hair. He was last seen wearing a grey and white short-sleeved polo shirt, grey trousers and black shoes.

Anyone who knows the whereabouts of the missing man or may have seen him is urged to contact the Regional Missing Persons Unit of New Territories South on 3661 1176 or 6197 3270 or email to rmpu-nts@police.gov.hk, or contact any police station.
