

Applications invited for Constitution and Basic Law Promotion Activity and Research Sponsorship Scheme

The Constitutional and Mainland Affairs Bureau is inviting a new round of applications under the Constitution and Basic Law Promotion Activity and Research Sponsorship Scheme.

The Sponsorship Scheme aims to encourage different groups or organisations to promote the Constitution, the Basic Law and the National Security Law to the public and to conduct relevant research, with a view to enhancing public understanding of and support for the three laws and the "one country, two systems" principle.

Application information can be downloaded from the Basic Law website (www.basiclaw.gov.hk/en/committee/sponsorship.html). The deadline for applications is October 3, 2023.

For enquiries, please contact the Secretariat of the Sponsorship Scheme at 2810 2106.
