The Standing Committee on Language Education and Research (SCOLAR) today (January 31) invited eligible local organisations to submit applications for the Sponsorship Projects 2024/25. The application deadline is noon, March 11.

With funding support from the Language Fund, the Sponsorship Projects aim at engaging community partners in organising language-related and event-based or competition-based projects in the community for promoting biliteracy (Chinese and English) and trilingualism (Cantonese, Putonghua and spoken English).

Application guidelines and information on the online briefing session are available on the SCOLAR webpage (www.scolar.gov.hk).
