Since its inception, the BFAC has helped improve the competitiveness of the local business environment by tendering advice on streamlining procedures, removing unnecessary regulatory barriers, improving regulatory efficiency and reducing business compliance costs. It has also served as an effective platform for the Government to seek views or consult various business sectors on new or proposed business regulations.

The Financial Secretary, Mr Paul Chan, expressed his gratitude to the eight outgoing members, namely Mr Wong Ting-kwong, Mr Eddy Chen, Ms Lusan Hung, Mr Simon Loong, Miss Frankie Tam, Miss Peggy Tse, Mr Kelvin Yau and Ms Belinda Yeung, for their support to the work of the committee and its task forces, and contributions made during their tenure.

The terms of reference of the committee are in the Annex.
