Mrs Ayesha Macpherson Lau (from April 1, 2021, to June 30, 2022)

Mr Laurence Li Lu-jen

Chief Executive, Hong Kong Monetary Authority

Chief Executive Officer, Securities and Futures Commission

Mr Chan said, "I am confident that with the knowledge, expertise and vast experience of members, the Financial Leaders Forum will continue to provide constructive advice on consolidating Hong Kong's role as an international financial centre and promoting the long-term development of our financial services industry." He also paid tribute to Dr David Wong Yau-kar, the outgoing member, for his valuable contributions over the past two years.

The Financial Leaders Forum, established in August 2017, is a high-level platform comprising top leaders from the financial community as well as key financial regulators. It is an institutional set-up underpinning the vision of the Government in playing a more active leading role in policymaking and on matters relating to monetary stability, financial safety and regulation to reinforce Hong Kong's position as an international financial centre. Members of the Forum provide advice from a strategic point of view and offer forward-looking suggestions on key aspects crucial to the development of Hong Kong as a leading international financial centre.
