

Appointments to Lump Sum Grant Steering Committee announced

The Government today (April 19) announced the reappointment of two incumbent members, namely Mr Ip Chi-wai and Mr Webster Ng Kam-wah, and the appointment of three new members, Miss Chow Tsz-ki, Mr Joseph Hung Hin-ching and Miss Alice Wan Ngai-teck, to the Lump Sum Grant Steering Committee (LSGSC). All of the appointments will take effect from April 22, 2024, for a term of two years.

The Secretary for Labour and Welfare, Mr Chris Sun, welcomed the appointments and also thanked the outgoing members, Ms Jasmine Chan Hoi-yan, Ms Chung Wai-ling and Mr Raymond Lai Kwan-ho, for their contributions to the LSGSC in the past.

Chaired by the Director of Social Welfare, the LSGSC monitors the implementation of the Lump Sum Grant Subvention System (LSGSS) and identifies areas for improvement. It also facilitates the sharing of information and experience among the Social Welfare Department, non-governmental organisations, their staff and service users on the implementation of the LSGSS.

The list of non-official members of the LSGSC in the new term is as follows:

Miss Vena Cheng Wei-yan
Ms Cheung Kwok-chun
