A Government spokesman said that the 15 non-official members were very knowledgeable and experienced in their respective areas of expertise, including arts and culture, engineering, surveying, business and finance, law and community service. They would provide the necessary knowledge and valuable advice in helping the Board to discharge its statutory duties and oversee the development and operation of the WKCD.

"I would like to thank the four outgoing members – Mr Chan Chi-chiu, Mr Chris Ip Ngo-tung, Dr Kan Tai-keung and Mr Leo Kung Lin-cheng – for their invaluable contribution to the work of the Board. I look forward to their continual support for the WKCD project in the future," said the Secretary for Home Affairs, Mr Caspar Tsui.

The WKCD Ordinance (Cap. 601) provides that the Board is the governing and executive body of the WKCD. It is responsible for the planning, development, operation and maintenance of the arts and cultural facilities and related facilities in the WKCD.
