

Armed Forces support Storm Arwen response in Scotland and northern England

297 personnel from the British Army and Royal Marines are supporting communities impacted by the storm by conducting door-to-door checks on vulnerable people.