

Arrangements for first Community Dialogue session

The Chief Executive, Mrs Carrie Lam, together with the Secretary for Home Affairs, Mr Lau Kong-wah; the Secretary for Food and Health, Professor Sophia Chan; the Secretary for Commerce and Economic Development, Mr Edward Yau; and the Secretary for Constitutional and Mainland Affairs, Mr Patrick Nip, will attend the first Community Dialogue session to be held tomorrow evening (September 26), a Government spokesman said.

Participants will be invited to express their views by drawing ballots. The speaking time for each participant will be set at about three minutes with a view to allowing more participants to express their views. The Chief Executive and the attending officials may provide an integrated response after a few participants have raised their views and questions. To facilitate a more interactive exchange between the Chief Executive and officials and the participants, the arrangement for responding to questions may be adjusted suitably.

The spokesman reminded participants of the Community Dialogue to allow sufficient time for security checks and observe the Venue Charter.
