

Artwork from Scotland and the North East to be showcased in buildings around the world

Government Art Collection acquires more than 20 new works of art from Scotland and the North East