

Asset resilience, emergency planning and response: The National Digital Twin Programme (NDTP)

This demonstrator aims to understand how digital twin technologies and processes can improve emergency response and help to increase the resilience of key assets and services.