

Attorney General launches government prosecution awards

Legal awards to celebrate the vital and important work of prosecutors has been launched, the Attorney General has announced.