

Attorney General seeks criminal damage clarity from Court of Appeal

The Court of Appeal has been asked to provide clarity on when a particular defence to criminal damage is available for use by protesters, the Attorney General has announced today.