

Attorney General visits Ukraine to support investigation of Russian war crimes

The Attorney General led a delegation of war crimes experts in Poland today as part of the UK's support for Ukraine's investigations into Russian atrocities